

The 5 Leadership Languages

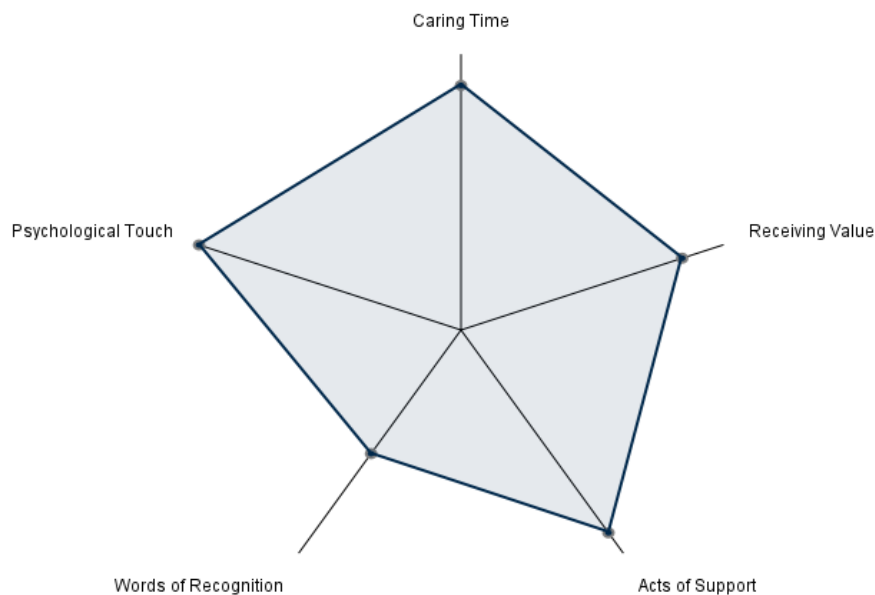

Survey Results Report

Nikki Cenon

USER

Overall Score: 189 / 250

Your overall leadership score is 189 out of 250 (Strong intent). Your strongest leadership language is Psychological Touch, where you demonstrate consistent practice. The area with the most opportunity for growth is Words of Recognition. Strengths: Psychological Touch, Caring Time, Acts of Support Areas to develop: Words of Recognition

● Score out of 50 per category

Caring Time

Score: 40 / 50

You consistently practice high-quality Caring Time, deeply investing in trust and team connection.

Receiving Value

Score: 38 / 50

You show good intent but have opportunities to deepen active listening and follow-up habits.

Acts of Support

Score: 41 / 50

You consistently demonstrate Acts of Support, enabling your team to thrive and grow.

Words of Recognition

Score: 25 / 50

Your recognition habits may be inconsistent or generic, risking diminished motivation.

Psychological Touch

Score: 45 / 50

You consistently embody Psychological Touch, cultivating deep trust, safety, and authentic connection in your team.

Suggested Learning Path

Recommended next steps:

- (developing) Deliver timely, specific recognition tied to concrete actions and results.